

Internship Perks

Paid Internships

We offer a competitive salary for all internship positions.

Structured Learning Experience

We provide extensive on-the-job training to better prepare students for the working world. Our three-month and seven-month internships provide students the opportunity for in-depth learning and hands-on experience.

R. Kubly Family Foundation

The foundation will pay for your graduate or professional schooling in return for a commitment to live and work in Monroe, Wisconsin after you graduate. Visit www.rkublyfamilyfoundation.org for more details.

Young Professionals of Green County

YP of GC strives to provide a connection for the Young Professionals who live or work in Green County, Wisconsin. Visit www.ypofgc.com often to check out the wide variety of events planned!

Employee Discounts

Our employee sales program offers the following employee discounts on items ordered from our fine catalogs and selected Outlet Stores:

- A discount of 35% to 40% on purchases from all company catalogs.
- A discount of 25% at the outlet stores.

Four Day Work Weeks

During the spring and summer months, four (4) to seven (7), four-day work weeks are provided, allowing for extended weekends for all to enjoy. Depending on when your internship begins, you may be eligible for this benefit.

Casual Dress Code

Colony Brands has a business casual environment. Every Friday is “Jean’s Day” as well. During the month of December, employees wear jeans every day! Enjoy our relaxed working environment.

Performance Updates

We provide interns with useful feedback regarding their performance throughout their internship. A formal mid-performance appraisal and final performance appraisal will be given.

Training

Colony Brands provides all interns with the necessary training to make their internship experience successful.

YMCA Membership Program

We provide our interns the opportunity to not only work their minds while interning, but also provide financial assistance to keep them physically active too! We will provide up to $40.00 per month, but not to exceed the actual cost of the single monthly membership fees paid by the participant, which will be substantially lower if enrolled as a full-time college student. Membership valid for YMCA and YWCAs only.
